

You state that the data provided is true, accurate and true to reality. In case of false or malicious denunciation, may be subject to the measures deemed appropriate.

COBEGA, S.A. (hereinafter, COBEGA) informs you that, in case you provide us with your personal data through the complaint form, such personal data will be processed by COBEGA, with registered office in Esplugues de Llobregat (Barcelona), Avinguda dels Països Catalans, 32, with the purpose of managing queries or complaints received through the Ethics Channel, as well as, where appropriate, carrying out the actions and inquiries necessary for the investigation of the facts that are the object of the same and determining, where appropriate, if there has been an infringement or irregularity and, if applicable, the adoption of the applicable disciplinary measures, having as a legitimating basis of the treatment the public interest for the investigation of acts or conducts that could be contrary to the general or sectoral regulations that could be applicable to it.

We inform you that your data will not be transferred, sold, rented or placed at your disposal in any other way to any third party, except for those service providers of COBEGA who perform certain activities for the company (such as, for example, sending communications, IT service providers, etc.), but in no case for their own purposes or when it is necessary for the adoption of disciplinary measures or for the processing of the judicial procedures that, as the case may be, proceed.

You can exercise your rights of access, rectification, deletion, treatment limitation, data portability and opposition, by sending an email to privacidad@cobega.com or by writing a request addressed to the following address: Cobega, SA, Avinguda dels Països Catalans, 32 08950 of Esplugues de Llobregat (Barcelona), Ref. Personal Data.

COBEGA informs you that we will keep your personal data, once your query is resolved, during the limitation period that legal actions may arise or until you request its deletion. The data provided will be treated in an absolutely confidential manner and the security measures that are appropriate and necessary will be adopted.

COBEGA reminds you that you may exercise your claim right before the competent control authority, Spanish Agency for Data Protection at www.agpd.es